

Dr. Gary Gold & Associates

Notice of Privacy Practices

Right to Notice As a patient, you have the right to adequate notice of the uses and disclosures of your protected information. Under the Health Insurance Portability and Accessibility Act (HIPAA), Dr Gary Gold & Associates protected health information for treatment, payment and health care operations. a) Treatment - We may use or disclose your health information to a physician or other healthcare provider providing treatment to you. b) Payment - We may disclose your health information to obtain payment for services we provide you. c) Health care operations - We may disclose your health information in connection with our healthcare operations. Healthcare operations include quality assessment and improvement activities, reviewing the competency or qualifications of healthcare professionals, provider performance, conducting training programs, accreditation, certification, licensing or credentialing activities.

Your Authorization Most uses and disclosures that do not fall under treatment, payment, health care operations require your written authorization. Upon signing, you may revoke your authorization (in writing) through our practice at any time.

Emergency Situations In the event of your incapacity or an emergency situation, we will disclose health information to your family member, or another person responsible for your care, using our professional judgment. We will only disclose information that is directly relevant to the person's involvement in your healthcare.

Marketing We will not use your health information for marketing communications without your written authorization.

Required by Law We may also use or disclose your health information when we are required to do so by law.

Abuse or Neglect We may disclose your health information to appropriate authorities if we reasonably believe you are a possible victim of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence or the victim of other crimes. We may disclose your health information to the extent necessary to avert a serious threat to your or other people's health or safety.

National Security We may disclose the health information of Armed Forces personnel to military authorities under certain circumstances. We may disclose health information to authorized federal officials required for lawful intelligence, counterintelligence and other national security activities. We may disclose health information of inmates or patients to appropriate authorities under certain circumstances.

Appointment Reminders We may use or disclose your health information to provide you with appointment reminders by phone, e-mail or letter.

Your Rights as a Patient You have the right to restrict the disclosure of your protected health information (in some cases, a request for restriction may be denied if the information is required for treatment, payment or health care operations). You have the right to receive confidential communications regarding your protected health information. -You have the right to inspect and copy your protected health information. -You have the right to amend your protected health information. -You have the right to receive an account of disclosures of your protected health information. -You have the right to this notice of privacy practices.

Legal Requirements Dr Gary Gold & Associates is required by law to maintain the privacy of your protected health information. We are required to abide by the terms of this notice as it is currently stated, and reserve the right to amend this notice. The policies in any new notice will not be in effect until they are posted to this site, or are available with our office.

Complaints If you have complaints regarding the way your protected health information was handled, you may file a complaint in writing to our office. You will not be retaliated against in any manner for a complaint.

Contact Information For further information about Dr Gary Gold & Associates's privacy policies, please contact Dr Gary Gold at the following address or phone number. 118 Town & Country Village Sunnyvale, Ca 94086 408 736-3802